Whenever relevant, the terminology used in this Electoral Code shall refer to the terms defined in the Definitions section of the Statutes of FABD.

Article 1 Scope of application

1 This Electoral Code is applicable to the elections of the members of the Executive Committee and of the independent committees as defined in the Statutes of FABD.

2 This Electoral Code is also applicable to the elections of the members of the relevant bodies of the Members of FABD, if their statutes specifically stipulate this. The statutes of the Members of FABD shall define the exact scope of application of this Electoral Code and, in particular, if the Electoral Committee of FABD shall supervise the relevant electoral process.

Article 2 Core obligations

1 General good governance principles, such as the separation of powers, independence, transparency, and the obligation to avoid situations of conflicts of interest, shall be observed without exception throughout the entire electoral process.

2 FABD shall ensure that any electoral rules and guidelines that it has issued are in line with the provisions of this Electoral Code, the Statutes of FABD as well as the Statutes, regulations, directives and decisions of FIFA.

3 FABD shall, at least 30 days before the date of the relevant elections, inform FIFA and the AFC about the nature of the elections (i.e. number of members to be elected, duration of mandates, reason for the elections, etc.) and provide FIFA and the AFC with a copy of its valid Electoral Code and, if applicable, any other electoral rules and guidelines.

4 Members of the Electoral Committee shall act impartially and independently. A member with a conflict of interest, or a risk thereof, as defined in the FABD Disciplinary and Ethics Code, shall immediately recuse themselves from deliberations and decision-making, and be replaced pursuant to the substitution provisions of this Electoral Code.

5 Unless expressly stated otherwise in the Statutes and regulations of FABD, the members of the relevant bodies of FABD shall continue to exercise their functions until the completion of the electoral process.

Article 3 Basic principles

1 The Electoral Committee shall supervise the electoral process in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Statutes of FABD and this Electoral Code.

2 The members of the Electoral Committee shall function independently and without undue influence from any third party. Accordingly, they shall not be members of any other body of FABD and may not currently hold any executive position in any government body. Any attempt to improperly sway, manipulate, intervene, or obstruct the sovereignty of the Electoral Committee and/or the electoral process, including government interference of any kind, is strictly prohibited. FABD shall immediately inform FIFA and the AFC of any undue influence in the electoral process.

3 The members of the Electoral Committee may not be candidates for any of the positions to be filled within FABD as long as they are still under mandate.

4 The members of the Electoral Committee shall immediately withdraw from the matter in progress and refrain from taking any decision if:

a) they are an immediate family member of one of the candidates running for any of the positions to be filled; and/or

b) there is a risk or possibility of a conflict of interest as defined in FIFA Code of Ethics.

5 In the event that a member of the Electoral Committee does not fulfil any of the above requirements and/or has to step down as member of the Electoral Committee for any reason, the member shall be replaced in accordance with the provisions of article 4 paragraph 3 of this Electoral Code.

6 The members of the Electoral Committee shall act in good faith at all times and observe the utmost impartiality when carrying out their duties.

Article 4 Composition

1 The Electoral Committee shall be composed as follows:

a) a chairperson;

b) a deputy chairperson; and

c) an ordinary member.

2 An appropriate number of substitutes shall also be appointed by the Congress.

3 If the chairperson is absent, unavailable, or recused, the deputy chairperson shall act as chairperson. If the deputy chairperson is absent, unavailable, or recused, the ordinary member shall act in their place. Where the ordinary member is also absent, unavailable, or recused, a duly appointed substitute shall replace that member.

4 Where more than one member is absent, unavailable, or recused, substitutes shall be called upon to replace each such member as necessary. Any substitute or deputising member shall have no authority, voting rights, or decision-making powers unless and until formally called upon in writing by the chairperson to act for that specific meeting or matter, and only for so long as the substitution remains necessary. For the avoidance of doubt, the quorum requirements set out in Article 6 shall continue to apply.

5 The Electoral Committee may appoint a secretary, who shall be responsible for overseeing relevant logistical and administrative matters. The secretary may call upon the general secretariat to assist them in their duties. The secretary shall at all times operate under the direct supervision of the Electoral Committee to safeguard the integrity of the process and to prevent any undue influence.

6 The chairperson and the deputy chairperson of the Electoral Committee shall have legal qualifications.

Article 5 Duties of the Electoral Committee

1 The Electoral Committee shall be responsible for all tasks relating to the organisation, running, and supervision of the elections to take place during the Congress.

2 In particular, the Electoral Committee shall be responsible for:

a) strictly enforcing the Statutes and regulations of FABD as well as this Electoral Code;

b) ensuring that any applicable electoral rules or guidelines of the bodies of FABD are in line with the provisions of this Electoral Code and the Statutes of FABD as well as the Statutes, regulations, directives and decisions of FIFA;

c) providing information to the Members as well as to relevant government authorities (where necessary, i.e. when expressly provided for under national legislation), the media and the public, notably by holding a media conference (where necessary);

d) where necessary, managing relations with relevant government authorities;

e) the candidature procedure (launch, distribution of information, evaluation, publication of official list, etc.);

f) drawing up the list of voters (delegates), assisted by the general secretariat, in accordance with the statutory provisions of FABD;

g) coordinating with the Executive Committee to issue an electoral timetable for each elective Congress setting out, at minimum, nomination opening and closing dates, deadlines for submission of all documents and declarations, timeframe for examination of candidatures, and the date, time, and venue of the Elective Congress.

h) verifying the identity of the voters (delegates) and their representation powers;

i) monitoring the electoral and voting process, including taking decisions regarding the validity or invalidity of ballot papers, passing a definitive decision on any matters relating to the electoral process during the elective Congress and certifying the official results;

j) performing checks regarding the fulfilment of the eligibility criteria and integrity requirements stipulated in the Statutes of FABD; and

k) any and all other tasks to ensure the smooth running of the electoral process.

Article 6 Meetings, quorum, and decisions

1 The chairperson shall convene the meetings of the Electoral Committee. Only an Electoral Committee that has been duly convened has the authority to deliberate and pass decisions.

2 The Electoral Committee shall not engage in valid debate unless a majority (more than 50%) of its members are present.

3 The Electoral Committee shall reach its decisions by a majority (more than 50%) of the valid votes cast. Abstentions as well as voting by proxy is not permitted. In the event of a tied vote, the chairperson shall have the casting vote.

4 The decisions taken shall be recorded in minutes signed by the chairperson and the secretary of the Electoral Committee.

Article 7 Eligibility criteria

1 The eligibility criteria for elective positions shall be those set out in the Statutes and Electoral Code of FABD as well as any mandatory requirements under applicable law.

2 The Electoral Committee shall not introduce new substantive eligibility criteria beyond those sources. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for purposes of the mandatory Integrity Check (under Article 37 Paragraph 6 of the Statutes of FABD), the Electoral Committee may require candidates to satisfy certain documentary, declaration, and integrity verification requirements to confirm that the statutory and legal eligibility criteria are met.

3 Any false or misleading declaration, concealment of material facts, or submission of forged or fraudulent documentation shall constitute grounds for rejection of a candidature. Such rejection may occur at any stage of the electoral process, including after publication of the official list of candidates, where the Electoral Committee determines that the candidature was accepted on the basis of fabricated or inaccurate information.

4 The full list of eligibility criteria, together with the integrity verification and documentary requirements applicable to candidates, are prescribed in Annexe 1 of this Electoral Code. Candidates shall comply with those requirements within the timelines stipulated under the Statutes and the electoral timetable.

5 No person shall be admitted as a candidate unless the candidature is validly nominated, duly submitted, complete in all material respects, and determined by the Electoral Committee to satisfy the eligibility criteria and all other applicable requirements under this Electoral Code. Candidates who do not meet the eligibility, documentation, and/or nomination requirements set out above shall be disqualified.

Article 8 Submission and examination of candidatures for the Executive Committee

1 Each candidature shall be supported by nominations from at least 2 Members entitled to vote at the Congress and signed off by the authorised signatories of the nominating Members. No Member may nominate more than 1 candidate for the same contested position.

2 No fees or charges of any sort shall be requested from any of the candidates at any point during the entire electoral process, unless they have previously been approved by the Congress. In any event, any fees or charges agreed upon shall remain reasonable and shall only serve to cover the costs of the relevant administrative burden.

3 Candidatures for any of the positions on the Executive Committee shall be sent by recorded post, by email with delivery notification, or delivered by hand to the general secretariat against written acknowledgment of receipt, by the deadline set out in the electoral timetable issued by the Electoral Committee, which deadline shall fall not less than 60 days before the relevant Elective Congress. Candidatures received by the general secretariat shall immediately be forwarded to the secretary of the Electoral Committee.

4 The Electoral Committee shall not be liable for any delay, misdelivery, transmission failure, or non-receipt of submissions occurring after the expiry of the timeframe provided. All submission risk remains with the candidate.

5 As part of their candidatures, candidates shall complete and return the forms contained in Annexe 2 and Annexe 3 of this Code, along with all supporting documents.

6 The Electoral Committee shall examine each application for candidature received within 5 days of the submission deadline under Paragraph 3 to confirm eligibility, validity of nomination, and completeness of documents. Where the Electoral Committee identifies any defective application due to minor deficiencies that can be rectified (e.g., incomplete forms or documents), candidates shall be notified and granted another 3 days to rectify their applications. Any application that remains unclear, incomplete, or inconsistent after this grace period has passed shall be declared invalid.

7 All candidatures for the Executive Committee shall be examined by the Electoral Committee within 20 days of the deadline for their submission, and the candidates shall be informed of the decision of the Electoral Committee within the same period.

8 Where a candidature is rejected, the Electoral Committee shall notify the candidate in writing of the decision, stating brief reasons for such rejection.

Article 9 Appeal procedure for candidates for the Executive Committee

1 Appeals against decisions of the Electoral Committee shall fall within the exclusive jurisdiction of the Election Appeal Committee. No recourse to any other adjudicatory body or forum shall be permitted, save where expressly provided under the Statutes of FABD or applicable FIFA and AFC regulations.

2 All appeals must be submitted in writing to the general secretariat either by hand (in exchange for written confirmation of receipt), by recorded post, or by email with delivery notification, within 4 days from notification of the decision of the Electoral Committee. Appeals received by the general secretariat shall immediately be forwarded to the Election Appeal Committee.

3 Appeals shall be considered by the Election Appeal Committee within 4 days of their receipt and communicated to the candidates within the same period, unless exceptional circumstances justify a longer period and procedural fairness is preserved.

4 Appeals shall be either upheld, dismissed or declared inadmissible by the Election Appeal Committee. If an appeal is upheld, the Election Appeal Committee shall take a decision on the merits, replacing the decision of the Electoral Committee. The Election Appeal Committee may decide to accept fresh evidence and documents that were not provided by the relevant candidate together with the initial candidature.

5 The Election Appeal Committee shall be composed of, by appointment of Congress, a chairperson, who is licensed to practise law, and two ordinary members with legal qualifications or possessing equivalent legal expertise. Two substitutes holding similar credentials shall also be appointed by the Congress at the same time as the members of the Election Appeal Committee. The same order of substitution in the event of absence, unavailability, or recusal shall apply in accordance with Article 4 paragraph 3.

6 The decisions of the Election Appeal Committee may only be referred to the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) in Lausanne, Switzerland, no later than 21 days from notification. Proceedings before any other court or tribunal are excluded, save where expressly permitted by FIFA and/or AFC regulations or mandated by applicable law.

Article 10 Procedure for candidates for other bodies of FABD

1 Candidatures for any of the positions on all other bodies of FABD (Audit and Compliance Committee, electoral committees and judicial bodies) shall be sent by the Executive Committee to the general secretariat at least 60 days before the relevant elective Congress. All candidatures received by the general secretariat shall be immediately forwarded to the Electoral Committee.

2 Within ten days of receipt of the candidatures, the Electoral Committee shall confirm to the general secretariat whether the formal requirements for the relevant positions have been fulfilled. In the event that one or more candidates cannot be validated, the Executive Committee shall propose additional candidates for the relevant positions.

Article 11 Official list of candidates

1 The official list of candidates for all the bodies of FABD shall be circulated to the Members at least 30 days before the relevant Congress.

2 The official list of candidates shall be published and, where required under applicable national law, transmitted to the relevant government authorities for information.

Article 12 Complaints relating to the electoral process

Any complaint, dispute, or challenge arising out of or in connection with the electoral process and/or the outcome of the elections shall be submitted exclusively to CAS, to the exclusion of any other adjudicatory body, tribunal, forum, or court of law.

Article 13 General principles

1 Voting shall be conducted by secret ballot.

2 Each delegate shall cast their vote personally and in accordance with the Statutes of FABD.

3 The Electoral Committee shall explain voting mechanics (including ballot handling, validity of ballots, counting procedures, required majorities, and results declaration) clearly to delegates and refer to the relevant statutory provisions prior to the commencement of voting.

Article 14 Ballot papers

1 Ballot papers shall be produced under the authority and supervision of the Electoral Committee.

2 Ballot papers shall be clear, legible, and contain the names of the eligible candidates.

3 The ballot papers shall be of a different colour for each of the positions to be elected.

Article 15 Ballot box and polling arrangements

1 Prior to voting, the ballot box shall be opened and shown to the Congress as empty and thereafter sealed.

2 The ballot box shall be transparent, if possible, and in full view of the Electoral Committee and Congress throughout the voting process.

3 The polling booth shall be positioned in a visible location to ensure transparency, while preserving the secrecy and confidentiality of the vote. No mobile phones, cameras or any other recording devices shall be allowed inside.

4 The ballot box must be monitored at all times by an Electoral Committee member.

Article 16 Casting of ballots

1 The Chairperson of the Electoral Committee shall call, in turn, each delegate of the Members present who is eligible to vote, to proceed to the front of the Congress hall (or such other area as may be determined by the Electoral Committee).

2 Upon being called, the delegate shall be issued a ballot paper upon signing an acknowledgment of receipt. The delegate shall then complete the ballot paper in the polling booth and deposit it in the ballot box. The delegate shall thereafter sign the electoral register to confirm that the vote has been cast and shall return to their seat.

3 Immediately after all eligible delegates have deposited their ballot papers into the ballot box, a member of the Electoral Committee shall open the ballot box and empty its contents in full view of the Congress.

4 The count shall then commence.

Article 17 Counting procedure

1 Only the members of the Electoral Committee shall take part in the count of the ballot papers. All operations (opening the ballot box(s), counting the ballot papers, counting the votes, etc.) shall be carried out in a way that can be followed clearly by all the delegates of the Congress.

2 The count shall be performed transparently so that the Congress may observe the process without compromising ballot secrecy.

3 The Electoral Committee shall resolve any doubt regarding ballot validity, interpretation, or counting methodology during the count and in the presence of the Congress, and such decision shall be final.

4 If the number of ballot papers in the ballot box is equal to or less than the number of ballot papers issued, the vote shall be valid. If the number exceeds the ballot papers issued, the vote shall be declared void and a fresh vote shall be conducted without delay in accordance with Article 16.

5 After verifying the number of ballot papers, the Electoral Committee shall proceed with the count of votes cast for each candidate or list.

Article 18 Invalid and doubtful votes

1 A ballot paper shall be invalid where it contains identifying marks, more votes than permitted, is illegible or have been defaced, contains words or symbols other than those required for voting, and/or does not appear to be an official ballot paper.

2 The chairperson of the Electoral Committee shall mark each invalid ballot papers by stating clearly on the reverse side the reason(s) for invalidity.

Article 19 Declaration of results

1 The Electoral Committee shall declare the results of the election and announce them to the Congress.

2 If a second (or subsequent) round of voting is required, the voting procedure shall be repeated in accordance with the above articles. The Members shall also be informed of the statutory provisions that apply for the second round (and any subsequent rounds) of voting (e.g. any changes to the majority required, elimination of candidates, etc.). After each round of the election, the chairperson of the Electoral Committee shall officially declare the results to the Members.

5 At the conclusion of the election, all counted ballot papers shall be placed by the General Secretary into designated envelopes, which shall be sealed and signed by the Chairperson of the Electoral Committee. The envelopes shall be maintained in secure custody by the General Secretariat and, unless required for any complaint, appeal, or CAS proceedings, shall be destroyed after 100 days from the date of the Elective Congress.

Article 20 Archiving of documents and confidentiality

1 All documents, declarations, ballot papers, and official records relating to the electoral process shall be archived by the General Secretariat for a period determined by the Electoral Committee, and at minimum in a manner sufficient to support full auditability and procedural accountability.

2 The members of the Electoral Committee and of the Election Appeal Committee shall maintain absolute confidentiality and secrecy with respect to any information and documents made available to them during the course of the electoral process. Such obligation shall remain for an indefinite period following the relevant electoral process.

3 The members of the Electoral Committee shall not personally retain any documents (electronic or otherwise) supplied to them during the electoral process.

Article 21 Public notary

1 A public notary, commissioner for oaths, or any person of equivalent legal status recognized by the courts of Brunei Darussalam shall attend the relevant Congress and draw up the minutes of the elections in accordance with any applicable requirements of national law.

2 They shall be specifically responsible for verifying the identity and authorization of the delegates prior to the commencement of the Congress, and for overseeing compliance with the prescribed voting procedure throughout the electoral process.

Article 22 Matters not provided for herein

1 All matters relating to the administrative and technical organisation of the elective Congress that are not covered by this Electoral Code or by the Statutes and regulations of FABD shall be ruled upon by the Electoral Committee, whose decision shall be final.

2 All matters relating to the running of the elections that are not covered by this Electoral Code or by the Statutes and regulations of FABD shall be ruled upon by the Electoral Committee, whose decision shall be final.

Article 23 Transitional provisions

1 Where a normalisation committee is appointed for FABD pursuant to a decision of FIFA , and its mandate includes the organisation and conduct of elections, the normalisation committee shall perform the functions of the Electoral Committee for the purposes of those elections.

2 Decisions taken by the normalisation committee in that capacity shall be final and binding within the electoral process. Any appeal or challenge against such decisions shall lie only before CAS, without recourse to any other adjudicatory body, forum, or court of law.

3 To the extent specified in the mandate establishing the normalisation committee with respect to the electoral process, the ordinary internal appeal provisions of this Code shall be disapplied.
