(1) PSSI Member Associations can be dismissed temporarily (suspended) or permanently.
(2) The temporary dismissal (suspension) of the PSSI Member Association and the duration of the temporary dismissal (suspension) are approved and determined by the PSSI Congress subject to the quorum of attendance of the PSSI Congress as applicable in Article 34 of this PSSI Statute and if approved by at least 75% (seventy-five percent) of the total number of valid votes present. Voting at the PSSI Congress as referred to in this paragraph is carried out behind closed doors.
(3) The Executive Committee also has the right to give a temporary dismissal (suspension) to the PSSI Member Association with the approval of at least 8 (eight) members of the Executive Committee.
(4) The temporary suspension (suspension) can be carried out if the PSSI Member Association seriously violates its obligations, repeats or harms PSSI.
(5) The temporary suspension (suspension) will be effective on the date of the PSSI Congress or the decision of the Executive Committee that approves and determines the temporary suspension (suspension) and will be valid until the next PSSI Congress, and until the Executive Committee has revoked the temporary suspension (suspension).
(6) The PSSI Member Association who will be temporarily dismissed (suspension) as intended in paragraph (3) of this Article has the right to attend the PSSI Congress or the Executive Committee meeting and provide an answer or defend themselves against the temporary suspension (suspension).
(7) With the effective dismissal, either permanently or temporarily (suspension), the dismissed PSSI Member Association is immediately detached from all functions and authorities attached to the position it held before the effective dismissal.
(8) PSSI Member Associations that are given temporary suspension sanctions (suspension) will lose their membership rights temporarily, cannot carry out football activities with other PSSI Member Associations and can be followed up through the Disciplinary Committee.
(9) PSSI Member Associations who do not participate in football competition activities organized by PSSI for a period of 2 (two) consecutive years will lose their voting rights in the PSSI Congress and their representatives cannot be elected or appointed as members of the PSSI Organization until all obligations that cause temporary suspension (suspension) have been fulfilled.
(10) In the event that the temporary suspension (suspension) has ended and is not continued with a permanent dismissal, the PSSI Member Association regains its membership rights.
(11) The permanent dismissal of the PSSI Member Association can only be approved and determined by the PSSI Congress subject to the quorum of attendance of the PSSI Congress as applicable in Article 34 of this PSSI Statute and if approved by at least 75% (seventy-five percent) of the total number of valid votes present. Voting at the PSSI Congress as referred to in this paragraph is carried out behind closed doors.
(12) Permanent dismissal of the PSSI Member Association can be done if:
    a. The PSSI Member Association does not fulfill its financial obligations to PSSI; or
    b. The PSSI Member Association has committed serious violations of PSSI Regulations as well as statutes, provisions and regulations issued by FIFA, AFC or AFF.

Article 17

Resignation of PSSI Member Association

(1) The PSSI Member Association can only resign from PSSI at the end of the calendar year and its notification must be submitted to the President or the Secretariat General to be submitted to the President of PSSI no later than 6 (six) months before the end of the calendar year.
(2) Resignation is only effective if the PSSI Member Association has carried out all its financial obligations to PSSI or to other PSSI Member Associations.

CHAPTER III HONORARY MEMBERS OF PSSI

Article 18
Requirements for PSSI Honorary Members

(1) The appointment and election of members of the PSSI Organization, except for the PSSI Congress, is carried out in accordance with the PSSI Regulations without any influence from any party.
(2) For the PSSI Congress, the appointment and election of members was not carried out.

Article 25
Conflict of Interest and Withdrawal from Decision Making (Recusal)

(1) In each meeting of the PSSI Organization, each member of the PSSI Organization shall ascertain to each other member of the meeting about any conflicts of interest that may arise and whether he or she can participate in the meeting, and declare his resignation from the entire process of discussion, debate, disagreement, dispute, deliberation, or decision-making, either at the beginning of the process, or in the middle of the process, or at the end of the process, if their participation in discussions, debates, differences of opinion, disputes, deliberations, or decision-making has the potential to cause conflicts or conflicts of interest or doubts regarding the impartiality and independence of the members of the PSSI Organization. The statement of resignation as referred to in this paragraph must be contained in writing in the minutes of the meeting held by the relevant PSSI Organization.
(2) The conflict of interest referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article is determined by the chair of the meeting. If the chair of the meeting is unable to attend or if the chair of the meeting is a person whose impartiality or independence is doubtful, the conflict of interest is determined by all other members of the meeting whose impartiality or independence is not in doubt.
(3) Members of the PSSI Organization must always be aware, obey, and uphold the FIFA Code of Ethics and all applicable PSSI Regulations, including any and all changes that specifically regulate conflicts of interest.
(4) All provisions of this Article apply mutatis mutandis to the PSSI Congress, the Delegates who attend it, and all decisions taken in the PSSI Congress.

Article 26
Dismissal of Members in the PSSI Organization

(1) Members of the PSSI Organization can be dismissed permanently or temporarily (suspension).
(2) The permanent dismissal of members of the PSSI Organization is approved and determined by the PSSI Congress subject to the applicable quorum of attendance and voting quorum as intended in Article 34 of the PSSI Statute.
(3) The permanent dismissal will be effective from the date of the PSSI Congress which approves and determines the permanent dismissal.
(4) The temporary dismissal (suspension) of the members of the Executive Committee is determined by the Executive Committee in an Executive Committee meeting with the approval of at least 8 (eight) members of the Executive Committee without the approval of the PSSI Congress. This Executive Committee meeting is obliged to discuss the reason for the temporary dismissal (suspension). The voting of the Executive Committee as intended in this paragraph shall be carried out behind closed doors.
(5) Members of the Executive Committee who will be temporarily dismissed (suspension) as intended in paragraph (4) of this Article have the right to attend the Executive Committee meeting and provide an answer or defend themselves against the temporary suspension (suspension).
(6) Temporary dismissal (suspension) of members of the Executive Committee as intended in paragraph (4) of this Article shall be effective from the issuance of the decision of the Executive Committee until the next PSSI Congress, unless the Executive Committee has revoked the temporary suspension (suspension).
(7) The temporary dismissal of the President, Deputy Presidents, members of the Standing Committee, Independent Committee, and Ad-Hoc Committee, as well as the duration of the temporary dismissal is recommended by the Executive Committee with the approval of at least 8 (eight) members of the Executive Committee, and approved and determined by the PSSI Congress subject to the applicable request quorum, attendance and voting rights quorum as referred to in Article 31 and Article

34 of the PSSI Statute. Voting at the PSSI Congress as referred to in this paragraph is carried out behind closed doors.

(8) Recommendations from the Executive Committee for temporary dismissal (suspension) as intended in paragraph (7) of this Article must be given accompanied by the reason for the recommendation and submitted to the relevant PSSI Congress.

(9) Temporary dismissal (suspension) as intended in paragraph (7) of this Article is effective on the date of the PSSI Congress where the temporary dismissal is approved and determined.

(10) Members of the PSSI Organization who will be dismissed have the right to answer and defend before the relevant PSSI Executive Committee and Congress.

(11) With the effective dismissal, either permanently or temporarily (suspension), the members of the dismissed PSSI Organization are immediately released from all functions and authorities attached to the position they held before the effective dismissal.

(12) Except for the temporary suspension of members of the Executive Committee as intended in paragraph (6) of this Article, the temporary suspension (suspension) shall be determined for a maximum of 3 months after the holding of the PSSI Congress which approves and determines the temporary suspension (suspension). If this duration has been completed and the PSSI Congress is not held to decide, approve, and determine permanent dismissal, then the temporary suspension (suspension) will end on the expiration date of the duration.

(13) In the event that the temporary suspension (suspension) has ended and is not continued with permanent dismissal, the dismissed PSSI Organization member will return to the position he left when he was dismissed by continuing the remaining term of office.

Part II
PSSI Congress

Article 27
PSSI Congress

(1) The PSSI Congress is the legislative body that has the highest authority in PSSI.

(2) The PSSI Congress is attended by a Delegation and can be attended by one or more reviewers proposed by the President and then approved by the PSSI Congress.

Article 28

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, every Delegate who comes to the PSSI Congress has the right to vote in accordance with the composition mentioned above.
(3) Elections conducted by Delegates cannot be represented by the transfer of voting rights even if the transfer of rights is made or given orally or in writing.
(4) Delegates who have voting rights are obliged to notify the Secretary General and prove the voting rights through a mandate letter legally given by the PSSI Club or Member Association that he represents.
(5) Delegates must be members appointed or selected to represent the authorized PSSI Member Clubs or Associations.
(6) Only Delegates who attend the PSSI Congress have the right to vote.
(7) The Executive Committee and the Secretary General are obliged to participate in the PSSI Congress without having voting rights. During his term of office, the person who serves on the Executive Committee cannot be appointed as a Delegate to represent the PSSI Member Association or institutions affiliated with him.
(8) The provisions of this Article apply to the Ordinary Congress and the Extraordinary Congress.

Article 30
Summoning of the PSSI Congress

(1) The summoning of the PSSI Congress, both the Ordinary Congress and the Extraordinary Congress, must contain at least:
   a. the agenda of the PSSI Congress to be discussed;
   b. where the PSSI Congress was held;
   c. the date and time of the PSSI Congress; and

d. If the PSSI Congress is held online (online), the PSSI Congress call must contain a link that can be accessed by all Delegates and other PSSI Congress invitees to attend the PSSI Congress.

(2) The summoning of the Ordinary Congress is carried out by the President no later than 1 month through a registered letter or e-mail before the implementation of the PSSI Congress.
(3) The summoning of the Extraordinary Congress is carried out by the Executive Committee no later than 2 months through a registered letter or e-mail before the PSSI Congress is held.
(4) Along with the call of the PSSI Congress, the President also provided the President's accountability documents, financial statements, and other documents that will be discussed in the PSSI Congress for review by the Delegates and other invitees. In the event that the election of members of the PSSI Organization will be held, documents containing information about the prospective members of the PSSI Organization must also be given to the Delegation at the same time as the PSSI Congress call. For the avoidance of doubt, this provision applies to both the Extraordinary Congress and the Extraordinary Congress.

Article 31
Procurement of Extraordinary Congress

(1) An Extraordinary Congress is held by the Executive Committee if any of the following conditions are met:
   a. At least 2/3 of the total number of Member Associations submitted a request to the Executive Committee for the holding of an Extraordinary Congress in writing; or
   b. A written request for an Extraordinary Congress is submitted by the President to the Executive Committee; or
   c. At least 10 (ten) members of the Executive Committee agree to hold an Extraordinary Congress.

(2) Written requests from the PSSI Member Association and the President as referred to in paragraph (1) point (a) and point (b) of this Article must contain matters to be used as an agenda at the Extraordinary Congress.
(3) The Extraordinary Congress must be held within 3 months after the receipt of the request for the procurement of the Extraordinary Congress as intended in paragraph (1) of this Article.
(4) If the deadline as intended in paragraph (3) of this Article has passed and the Executive Committee does not hold an Extraordinary Congress, the PSSI Member Association that submits the request may hold its own Extraordinary Congress. As a last resort, the PSSI Member Association can ask for help from FIFA.
(5) The agenda of the Extraordinary Congress cannot be changed from the matters that have been conveyed as referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article.

Article 32
PSSI Congress Rules

(1) After the President states that the PSSI Congress has been prepared and held in accordance with the PSSI Statute, the quorum of attendance will not be influenced by the Delegates who leave the room.
(2) The election at the PSSI Congress was carried out by secret voting through electronic counting devices or ballot papers.

(3) Elections at the PSSI Congress must be carried out in accordance with the PSSI Election Code and supervised by the PSSI Election Committee.

Article 33

Article 34
Quorum of the PSSI Congress

(1) Unless otherwise specified in this PSSI Statute, the decision taken at the Ordinary Congress is a valid decision if the Ordinary Congress is attended by at least 50% + 1 (fifty percent plus one) of the Delegates, and the decision is approved by at least 50% + 1 (fifty percent plus one) of the Delegates present.
(2) Unless otherwise specified in this PSSI Statute, the decision taken at the Extraordinary Congress is a valid decision if the Extraordinary Congress is attended by at least 66% + 1 (sixty-six percent plus one) of the Delegates, and the decision is approved by at least 66% + 1 (sixty-six percent plus one) of the Delegates present. For the avoidance of doubt, the quorum of the PSSI Congress that will be used in the event that there is an agenda for the dismissal of the President, Deputy President, or members of the Executive Committee is a quorum as referred to in this paragraph.
(3) Every decision of the Congress related to the dissolution of PSSI is valid if it is attended by at least 75% (seventy-five percent) of the Delegates and approved by at least 75% (seventy-five percent) of the Delegates present at the time the PSSI Congress is held specifically for that purpose.
(4) If the quorum of attendance of the PSSI Congress is not met, then the second PSSI Congress must be held within 7 (seven) calendar days calculated after the first PSSI Congress, with the same agenda.
(5) Decisions taken at the second Ordinary Congress are only valid if attended by 33% + 1 (thirty-three percent plus one) Delegates with the same decision-making quorum as intended in paragraph (1) of this Article.
(6) If the quorum of the presence of the Extraordinary Congress is not met, then the second Extraordinary Congress must be held within 7 (seven) calendar days calculated after the first Extraordinary Congress, with the same agenda.
(7) Decisions taken at the second Extraordinary Congress are only valid if attended by 60% + 1 (sixty percent plus one) Delegates with the same decision-making quorum as intended in paragraph (2) of this Article.
(8) Damaged or blank ballot papers or other forms such as abstention are considered invalid in the most votes count.

Article 35
PSSI Congress Minutes

The Secretary General must be responsible for recording the minutes of the PSSI Congress. The minutes must be re-examined by the PSSI Member Association appointed and approved at the PSSI Congress.

Article 36
Mechanism for Election of the Executive Committee through the PSSI Congress

(1) The election of the President, Deputy Presidents, and other members of the Executive Committee is carried out by 2 (two) methods, namely on the basis of group selection and individual election.
(2) The group election is carried out to elect the President, 2 (two) Deputy Presidents, and 7 (seven) members of the Executive Committee by voting based on the existing group. Group selection is carried out en bloc or package with at least 1 (one) woman in the package.
(3) Individual elections are carried out to elect 5 (five) other members of the Executive Committee. Each candidate for the Executive Committee member who is elected individually is submitted to the PSSI Congress and elected based on the most votes.

(4) Candidates for the position of Executive Committee must be sent to the PSSI Secretariat General at least 30 (thirty) calendar days before the implementation of the PSSI Congress concerned. The official list of candidates must be submitted to the PSSI Member Association at least 10 (ten) calendar days before the PSSI Congress to elect the Executive Committee. This provision also applies to elections in the Extraordinary Congress.

Article 37
Mechanism for Election of Independent Committees through the PSSI Congress

(1) For the election of the Chairperson, Deputy Chairperson, and members of the Independent Committee, the candidate who received the most votes at the PSSI Congress will fill the vacant seat positions. The election can be held simultaneously.
(2) In the event that there is the same number of votes for 2 (two) candidates in the election for a PSSI Organization, the re-election must be carried out a maximum of 2 (two) rounds based on the procedure stipulated in this Article until one candidate is elected. If until the last re-election and one candidate has not been elected to fill the position, then the President is authorized to select, appoint, and designate one of the candidates as a member of the relevant PSSI Organization.
(3) Blank ballots, invalid ballots or electronic ballots manipulated in any way as well as other fraud, will be ignored and considered invalid in the most votes count.
(4) Candidates for each position of the Independent Committee must be submitted to the PSSI Member Association at least 10 (ten) calendar days before the PSSI Congress to select the position.

Article 38
The Enactment of the PSSI Congress Decree

The decision issued by the PSSI Congress shall be effective as soon as the PSSI Congress is completed, unless otherwise stipulated in the PSSI Statute or the PSSI Congress shall set another date for the enactment of the decision.

Article 39
Provincial PSSI Congress

(1) The Provincial PSSI holds the Provincial PSSI Congress, which consists of the Provincial PSSI Ordinary Congress or the Provincial PSSI Extraordinary Congress with the written approval of PSSI and only if each agenda of the congress is approved in writing by PSSI. If PSSI does not respond to the proposed agenda within 14 (fourteen) working days after the proposal is received, the proposed agenda is considered approved.
(2) If the agenda of the Provincial PSSI Congress is not approved by PSSI and is still implemented, the agenda that is not approved by PSSI will automatically be declared invalid and does not have any legal force. The Provincial PSSI cannot replace or add to the agenda of the Provincial PSSI Congress without the approval of PSSI.
(3) Each Provincial PSSI Congress must be attended by at least 1 representative from PSSI who does not have the right to vote at the Provincial PSSI Congress.
(4) The quorum of attendance and the number of votes required in the context of the election of members of the Provincial PSSI are mandatory in accordance with the PSSI Statute.
(5) The Provincial PSSI Congress is authorized to elect the Chairperson of the Provincial PSSI. The Provincial PSSI Congress to elect and/or appoint the Provincial PSSI Chairperson will be held in July at the end of the term of office of the Provincial PSSI Chairperson, after PSSI holds an Ordinary Election Congress in May after the end of the previous PSSI management term.

(6) The provisions regarding the composition of the PSSI Congress, the procedures and deadlines for summoning the PSSI Congress, the proof of the representation of the PSSI Member Association with a mandate letter, the quorum of attendance and the quorum of voting, the election procedures, the re-election in terms of the series, voting rights, and minutes in the PSSI Statute apply mutatis mutandis to the Provincial PSSI Congress.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Article 89
Applicable Law

This PSSI Statute is governed and interpreted based on the statute and all regulations of the AFF, AFC, FIFA, and the applicable laws in the Republic of Indonesia.

Article 90
PSSI Jurisdiction

PSSI, PSSI Member Associations, Players, Officials, Affiliated Institutions and/or parties affiliated with or related to PSSI may not submit disputes to state bodies or institutions or the General Court, unless specifically specified in the PSSI Statutes and FIFA regulations. Any dispute or dispute arising out of or in connection with the PSSI or PSSI Regulations falls within the jurisdiction of FIFA and must be submitted through a dispute resolution mechanism as stipulated in this PSSI Statute.

Article 91
PSSI Dispute Resolution and Arbitration

(1) Any dispute, dispute or difference of opinion between or involving PSSI Member Organizations or Associations (which are not under the authority of the Indonesian NDRC) must be resolved first within a maximum period of 30 (thirty) working days through internal peace efforts through an ad hoc dispute resolution committee or team formed by the PSSI Secretariat General or through the Provincial PSSI appointed by the PSSI General Secretariat.
(2) In accordance with the PSSI Regulations and the statutes and provisions of FIFA, AFC and AFF, NDRC Indonesia has special jurisdiction as the first and last instance body to examine and decide contractual disputes that occur between Players and Clubs, Clubs with Clubs, or Clubs with Coaches. For the avoidance of doubt, any dispute falling within the jurisdiction of the National Dispute Resolution Chamber Indonesia will be resolved solely by that body.
(3) Taking into account the specificities contained in paragraph (1) and paragraph (2) of this Article, BAKI has a separate jurisdiction from the Indonesian NDRC as the dispute resolution body to examine and decide disputes outside of contractual disputes that occur between Players and Clubs, Clubs with Clubs, or Clubs with Coaches.
(4) BAKI has the authority as the last level body to examine and decide every appeal of the decision that has been issued by the Appeal Committee against the decision of the Ethics Committee and the Disciplinary Committee regarding violations of the PSSI Statutes, Code of Ethics, or Disciplinary Code. Legal remedies submitted to BAKI as intended in this paragraph may be submitted to BAKI within a period of 21 calendar days from the receipt of the decision of the Appeal Committee by the party proposing the legal remedy.
(5) For the avoidance of doubt, legal remedies to BAKI may only be submitted to BAKI after all other legal remedies regulated in this PSSI Statute and the Code of Ethics or Disciplinary Committee have been completed by the parties. The decision issued from the last legal remedy taken by the parties as referred to in this Article is final and binding on the parties involved.
(6) FIFA has jurisdiction over international disputes, i.e. disputes between different Associations and/or Confederations in accordance with the applicable FIFA rules and/or statutes.

Article 92
Court of Arbitration for Sports (CAS)

(1) Referring to the provisions of the relevant articles in the FIFA Statutes, any appeal filed against FIFA's decision is examined and decided by the CAS in Lausanne, Switzerland. However, CAS will not examine or decide on appeals for violations of the Laws of The Game, temporary suspension (suspension) of up to 4 (four) matches or up to 3 (three) months or disputes are not under the authority of CAS or FIFA
(2) PSSI is obliged to ensure that the PSSI Organization and PSSI Member Association comply with every final decision issued by FIFA or CAS.
